Additional Hiring Requirements:

Please Note: The employer encourages groups to apply, however groups of friends and couples should not expect to be assigned the same shift, the same site location or be granted the same days off. Although they will try, employer cannot guarantee groups of friends will be placed in the same housing unit. Couples CANNOT be placed in the same housing unit. Upon arrival at the Candy Kitchen office, participants will fill out paper work and the employer will make copies of passport documents and the DS-2019 form. Participants will receive housing keys and sign the housing lease. Participants are expected to visit the Social Security Office (SSO) within their first week here; they will have at least one scheduled day off to visit the SSO. Once they visit the SSO, the employer needs the letter that states participants have applied for the social security card. That letter will say when participants need to go back and pick-up the card, and the employer needs a copy of the card too.
